(1) Supplemental Dividends will be paid only in the event there is a requirement in addition to the normal Daily Accrual month-end payment.

Daily Accrual Dividends: Dividends are declared daily to that day's "settled" shareowners of record for the amount of net investment income earned that day. The payment of these dividends is on the last business day of the month.

Record Date – Purchases through this day are eligible to receive the distribution. Shares redeemed on this day are not eligible to receive the distribution. This date is usually the business day prior to the ex-dividend date.

Ex-Dividend Date – The date on which the distribution amount per share is deducted from the fund's net asset value (NAV) per share. Purchases on or after this date will not be eligible to receive the distribution. Also known as the declaration date, the ex-dividend date, is generally the business day after the record date.

Payable Date – The fund pays shareholders their proportional shares of the distribution on this date. For PIMCO mutual funds, the payable date for distributions paid in cash is normally the same business day as the ex-dividend date, except for those funds with daily income distributions.

In addition to the distribution dates noted within the calendar, additional distributions may be necessary to avoid imposition of excise tax. See the Funds' Statement of Additional Information for details on excise tax.
