This Transfer on Death (TOD) form is for clients who wish to register a TOD account in the PIMCO Interval Funds. If you are establishing a new account, please return this form along with your completed PIMCO Interval Fund Account Application.

Please complete all sections of this form, and designate your beneficiaries in Section 2. If the primary or contingent status is not indicated, the individual or entity will be considered a primary beneficiary. After your death, the account assets will be distributed in equal shares (unless indicated otherwise) to the surviving primary beneficiaries. If no primary beneficiaries are living when you pass away, the account assets will be distributed in equal shares (unless otherwise indicated) to the surviving contingent beneficiaries. If any TOD beneficiary is a minor, a custodian must be assigned until the beneficiary reaches the age of maturity. After your death, if no primary beneficiary survives the owner, and no contingent beneficiary survives all primary beneficiaries, the account proceeds will be paid to the owner's estate. Please note that a Taxpayer ID number is required for U.S. citizen beneficiaries on a TOD account. If you need additional space to name beneficiaries, attach a separate sheet that includes all of the information requested in Section 2. Please sign and date the sheet.

Guidelines for Transfer on Death (TOD) Registration

Eligible Owner

The Transfer on Death (TOD) registration format can only be used for (1) sole owner accounts for natural persons, and (2) natural persons holding the shares as joint owners with rights of survivorship (i.e., JTWRROS or TEN ENT), TOD registration is not available for non-natural persons (e.g., corporations, trusts, associations), tenants in common, UGMA, UTMA or community property registrations.

Eligible Beneficiaries

Subject to any exceptions under state law, generally the beneficiaries on a TOD registration can be a natural person or other entity such as trusts, corporations or guardianships. If a trust is named as a beneficiary, the trust documents will be required at the time of death. Custodians under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act are not permitted beneficiaries in a TOD registration. Custodians under the Uniform Gift to Minors Act are not permitted beneficiaries in a TOD registration (because the UGMA only applies to gifts made during the lifetime of the account owner). No designation such as Lineal Descendants or Lineal Descendants Per Stirpes are permitted. Until the account owner(s) pass away, the named beneficiary has no rights to the shares in the TOD account and no instructions can be accepted from, or information provided to, such beneficiary. Beneficiaries who open an account using a non-U.S. address may not be allowed to make subsequent investments into the account. If the beneficiary fails to survive the account owner, the account will be treated as belonging to the owner's estate. If the beneficiary survives the owner but is not alive at the time the shares are presented for transfer, the shares become part of the beneficiary's estate.

Transfers and revocation during life of owner(s)

The owner(s) of the account may change or revoke the TOD registration with clear written instruction to PIMCO Interval Funds, Direct Mail: PIMCO Interval Funds P.O. Box 219993 Kansas City, MO 64121. If there are outstanding share certificates for the TOD account, the certificate must be properly endorsed by the surviving owner(s) with their signature(s) Medallion Signature Guarantee or Signature Validation Program Stamped by a financial institution of the type described in the fund prospectus. In addition, the surviving owner(s) must provide SS&C Global Investor & Distribution Solutions, Inc. (SS&C GIDS), with evidence of the death of the deceased co-owner (certified death certificate) and inheritance tax waivers and/or affidavits of domicile of the deceased co-owner, if applicable.

Neither SS&C GIDS, PIMCO Interval Funds nor their affiliated persons and service providers, are responsible for determining the tax and legal consequences to you concerning your decision to register your fund shares in TOD form. Neither SS&C GIDS, PIMCO Interval Funds nor their affiliated persons and service providers, shall be responsible to a designated TOD beneficiary for dividends or distributions in respect of shares registered in TOD form paid after the owner's death but before the transfer of such shares to the designated beneficiary.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) released mandatory cost basis regulations requiring mutual fund companies to report cost basis information to shareholders and to the IRS on mutual fund shares acquired and subsequently redeemed and/or transferred after January 1, 2012 (hereinafter referred to as "covered shares"). For transfers due to Inheritance on accounts with Joint Tenants with Rights of Survivorship (JTWRROS), unless instructed otherwise by indicating the ownership percentage of each party, the shares will be split equally with the basis for the descendants' portion determined using the fair market value of the date of death and the other portions maintaining the current cost basis. Please consult a tax advisor with any questions. Note that PIMCO is unable to provide tax advice related to specific investments or accounts.

Future Changes in these Guidelines

These guidelines are subject to change by SS&C GIDS, in response to changes in TOD status as adopted in several states and in the Securities Transfer Association's TOD Rules.
