2026 Tax Reference Guide

This popular guide has been updated to include recent provisions of the One Big Beautiful Bill Act and highlights important and timely tax information for the 2026 tax year.

INDIVIDUAL INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX PROFESSIONAL

Planning for 2026 Taxes

This Tax Reference Guide provides highlights of the current tax law for financial professionals and investors to be aware of throughout the year. Together with a tax professional, financial advisors and investors should closely monitor the overall tax burden and look for planning opportunities to reduce or minimize the impact of taxes annually. Federal tax schedules and tables are included for the various income and asset categories.

The guide is not meant to replace the assistance or advice of a tax professional.

2026 Phaseouts and breakpoints (MFJ)

As of January 1, 2026

Source: IRS, OBBBA, PIMCO

Refer to Appendix for additional tax information.

EXPLANATION OF PHASEOUTS

Saver's credit: Offers a tax credit of 50%, 20% or 10% on the first $2,000 in contributions made to a taxpayer's retirement account. Percentage depends on taxpayer's AGI and tax filing status and credit is applied directly to a tax bill to reduce federal income tax owed. Credit is subject to phaseout at $48,000.

Deductible IRA contributions: The maximum IRA contribution is $7,500 for 2026, but the deductibility is determined by coverage under a retirement plan.

- For taxpayers who are not covered by a plan, and have a spouse who is also not covered, the full contribution is deductible from current earnings.

- For taxpayers who are covered by a plan, the deductible amount is reduced for MAGI between $129,000 to $149,000.

For taxpayers who are not covered but married to a covered spouse, the deductible amount is reduced for MAGI between $242,000 to $252,000.

Senior deduction: Offers a $6,000 bonus deduction in tax years 2025-2028 for age 65+ to indirectly "offset" the taxation on social security benefits received. The deduction is available for taxpayers claiming either the standard deduction or those who itemize, and is subject to phase-out at MAGI above $150,000 MFJ ($75,000 single) at a 6% rate.

American Opportunity Credit/Lifetime Learning Credit:

Qualifying taxpayers may claim two education credits. American Opportunity Tax Credit provides up to $2,500 for qualified undergraduate education expenses and can be claimed up to four years. The Lifetime Learning credit provides up to $2,000 for both undergraduate and graduate qualified expenses. Taxpayers can only claim one credit per qualifying student. Credit begins to phase out if MAGI is between $160,000 and $180,000.

Auto loan interest deduction: Offers a maximum annual deduction of up to $10,000 for automobile loan interest paid in years 2025-2028 for taxpayers claiming either the standard deduction or those who itemize. The auto must meet certain requirements to qualify: assembled in the US; purchased, not leased; new vehicle, not used; purchased after 12/31/24; weighs less than 14,000 lbs.; used for personal, not business. The deduction phaseout begins for MAGI above $200,000 MFJ ($100,000 single).

Roth IRA contributions: The maximum Roth IRA contribution amount is $7,500 for 2026, but is reduced for payers with MAGI above $242,000 MFJ ($150,000 single).

Affordable Care Act (ACA) taxes (Medicare and Net Investment Income): These surplus taxes were instituted in 2013 and include 0.9% on earned income (wages, bonus) and 3.8% on investment income (dividends, capital gains). They apply to MAGI above $250,000 MFJ ($200,000 single).

Tips / overtime deduction: Income earned from these sources may be excluded from taxable income in years 2025-2028 for both taxpayers claiming either the standard deduction or those who itemize. Income of up to $25,000 derived from tips and up to $12,500/employee of overtime pay (above base rate only) is eligible, but subject to phaseout at $300,000 MFJ ($150,000 single).

Qualified business income (QBI)/Sec 199A deduction: Pass-through businesses (sole proprietors, LLCs, S-corporations) receive a 20% deduction on net earnings, subject to certain limitations, including specialized service business. The deduction is subject to phaseout at $403,500 MFJ ($201,750 single). The phaseout range is expanded in 2026.

Child credit: Qualifying children provide a tax credit – more valuable than a tax deduction – of $2,250 in 2026. The credit is subject to phaseout at $400,000 of MAGI.

State and local tax deduction (SALT): Taxpayers receive an itemized deduction of up to $40,400 in 2026, up from a cap of $10,000 previously, for local taxes paid including state income taxes and either property taxes or sales taxes. This deduction is subject to phaseout for MAGI between $505,000 and $606,333 MFJ (with a minimum level of $10,000) effectively increasing a marginal tax rate to over 45% for payers in the phaseout range.

Alternative minimum tax (AMT) exemption: The phaseout accelerates to a 50% rate for MAGI in excess of $1,000,000 MFJ in 2026, increasing the probability of AMT liability for higher income taxpayers in future years.

Itemized deduction limitation*: Itemized deductions will be capped at an effective rate of 35% for taxpayers with taxable income above $768,700 MFJ starting in 2026.

KEY TERMS

Gross income: Compensation, business income, taxable interest, capital gains, retirement income, rent, etc.

Adjusted gross income (AGI): Gross income minus certain adjustments including: alimony, educator expense, HSA contributions, deductible IRA, moving expenses for military, self-employment taxes, student loan interest, etc. Often referred to as above the line. Found on line 11 of form 1040.

Modified adjusted gross income (MAGI): AGI with municipal income, student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions added back. Used to determine IRMAA costs, ACA tax effect, ROTH and deductible IRA eligibility. For the new OBBBA deductions (senior, auto interest, tips/overtime, SALT, etc.) municipal income is not included in MAGI.
