2. Beneficiary Designations

Shareowner (or Inherited IRA Owner) may designate beneficiaries below. If the primary or contingent status is not indicated, the individual or entity will be considered a primary beneficiary. After your death, the account assets will be distributed in equal shares (unless indicated otherwise) to the primary beneficiaries who survive you. If no primary beneficiaries are living when you die, the account assets will be distributed in equal shares (unless otherwise indicated) to the contingent beneficiaries who survive you. You may revoke or change the beneficiary designation at any time by completing a new Change of Beneficiary Form and providing it to the custodian. Any subsequent designation filed with the custodian will revoke all prior designations. After your death, if no primary beneficiary survives the owner, and no contingent beneficiary survives all primary beneficiaries, the account proceeds will be paid to the owner's estate.

If you need additional space to name beneficiaries, attach a separate page that includes all of the information requested above. Sign and date the page.

Choose ONE only (If no selection is made or if you select a trust or estate beneficiary, your account will default to Per Capita):

- Per Capita: Only surviving named beneficiaries receive a share of the account.
- Lineal Descendants Per Stirpes (LDPS): A beneficiary's share of the inheritance will go to his or her descendants if the beneficiary does not survive you.
